

LACROIX

2009 RANKING: 5 / 2008 RANKING: 2

Creative plates, flawless execution and virtually telepathic service continue to make this lofty Rittenhouse perch worth visiting for more than just its famous brunch.

INSIDER TIP: Whether it's lychee puree with seared foie gras or guava puree with scallops, savory dishes that feature fruit are a great way to go. DON'T MISS: The peppermint chocolate soufflé. BARGAIN BEAT: On most Sundays and Mondays, all wine bottles are half-price. IF ONLY: They could hang on to head chefs longer; there have been three in just over two years. 210 West Rittenhouse Square, second floor, 215-790-2533, lacroixrestaurant.com.
