

Top 10 Brunch Hotels in the U.S.

Lazy Sundays are for sleeping in, reading the paper, watching the sun dance around your bedcovers and finally—but most importantly—indulging in brunch. That hour when it's way too late for breakfast but not quite time for lunch is the best time to indulge in a languorous meal. So we scoured the country for the best brunch experiences, where you can sip and sup in style. Whether you're looking for freshly squeezed juice and an egg or two, or a full-on carnivorous meal, here are some of the best hotel brunch spots in the country designed to curb your mid-morning Sunday hunger pangs.

Philadelphia, PENNSYLVANIA

The Rittenhouse Hotel: Lacroix at The Rittenhouse

Situated in a gorgeous minimalist space, Lacroix promises an adventure in dining that should not be missed. Start with raw bar specialties—smoked mackerel, American oysters—paired with Cuvée Lacroix, an Premier Cru Brut. Move selections that include crayfish mousseline Côtes du Rhône, and then finish with charred scallions drizzled with black truffle vinaigrette and a glass of crisp Riesling.
